

MTAA Workplace Learning Directory

Fact Sheet for tertiary students

MTAA recognises the need to expose students to the many career opportunities available to them through workplace learning programs.

Workplace learning programs enable students to contextualise their learning, while gaining valuable practical skills and knowledge in the workplace.

The following medical technology companies are currently offering workplace learning placements for tertiary students:

1. Abbott Diagnostics
2. bioMerieux Australia
3. Cardio Research
4. Cochlear
5. Diagnostic Solutions
6. Medtronic

Through this initiative, these companies; and others who may register in the future; will assist students in becoming exposed to the work of the medical technology industry.

The directory can be accessed online via the MTAA website by selecting Professional Development, then Education, Students
